

Kim Allen

Kim Allen has been teaching Music in primary schools since 2003. She is passionate about the role Music plays in children's education and development. Learning about orchestral music is a joyous, enthusiastic experience her students look forward to. Exploring the program for the TSO's Symphony Under the Stars is a highlight of her teaching program each February. There is nothing Kim likes more than a good dance to excellent live music.