

Maxine Antolli

Maxine is a passionate music educator who has been teaching Primary school music for over 25 years. She was trained in the UK and has taught in Suffolk (UK) and in Catholic and Independent schools in Sydney. She now teaches at Southern Christian College, an International Baccalaureate school, after moving to Hobart two years ago with her family. Maxine is a pianist and singer who loves to train choirs. She is enjoying bringing the Kodály pedagogy to the Inquiry-based learning advocated by her school.