

Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra
Section Principal Horn - Expressions of Interest

The Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra (TSO) is looking for an outstanding musician to fill the role of Section Principal Horn.

The TSO comprises of 47 full time musicians based in Hobart, Tasmania. The orchestra is a small and versatile ensemble, specialising in music of all genres, with a particular emphasis on classical, romantic and 20 Century repertoires. The TSO performs subscription series in both Hobart and Launceston, along with travelling throughout regional Tasmania and interstate.

We are based in Hobart – Australia’s smallest and most charming state capital and a city known for its relaxing, friendly lifestyle. Tasmania enjoys outstanding natural scenery, world famous tourist destinations, pristine living conditions and superb home-grown food and wine.

This position is open to all nationalities.

Requirements

1. Completed application form. Click here
2. A current CV with contact details (email address and mobile) of 2 recent referees
3. Recording (with video) of a performance of either a concerto or recital, or a studio recording of a recital made in the last 2 years. The recording should contain contrasting works of no more than 30 minutes of music.

Applications:

Applications are invited for the above full-time position with the TSO.

Please forward all applications to: Jacqui Walkden, Director Operations TSO at walkdenj@tso.com.au, or to discuss applications please call +61 3 6232 4415.

Please make contact prior to sending any recordings in order to discuss the format, please note that it is in the applicant’s best interest that all recordings be of a professional quality.

Successful candidates will be invited to undertake a 2-3 week trial engagement with the TSO and perform a Recital Audition during the engagement. All repertoire for the Audition Recital will be provided to applicants once an engagement period is confirmed.

Closing Date:

There is no closing date for this position, the position will close once an appointment is made.

Salary:

Salary package (inclusive of superannuation and leave loading) ranges from:

AUD $96,000.00 - $100,900.00 pa (aprox)

The position also attracts five weeks of Annual Leave