

Angela Chapman is a specialist Music teacher from Launceston, Tasmania with over twenty years' experience in teaching classroom music to children in both public and private school settings. She believes strongly in the importance of Music education for all children and in the efficacy of the Orff approach. She has trained to teach at ANCOS levels courses in Music and Movement Education, and is experienced in presenting professional learning to teachers. Angela is currently the President of the Tasmanian Orff Schulwerk Association Inc and is on the ANCOS committee.